

Pointe Hilton Resort Host Halloween with Two Times the Fun

Other worldly room rates and Hauntingly-Fun Activities All-Weekend Long

(October 2009) – Grab your Halloween costume and join the Pointe Hilton Resorts for a frightening-fun Halloween. Halloween activities, food, fun and a hair-raising $99 room rate for guests with valid Arizona IDs, all await at the Pointe Hilton Resort this Halloween.

Everyone is invited to join Pointe Hilton Squaw Peak's annual celebration, Pumpkins at the Peak, which transforms the Hole-in-the-Wall River Ranch into a spooky Halloween haunt. Held Friday, October 30 from 5 – 7 p.m., this event is a monster-mash that features several activity booths, arts-n-crafts, games and of course trick-or-treating poolside at Hole-in-the-Wall River Ranch. Admission is $5 or two canned food items per person, with all canned goods and proceeds donated to the St. Mary's Food Bank. A special buffet will also be available for purchase at Hole-in-the-Wall restaurant.

For guests brave enough to spend the night, the Halloween extravaganza continues into the next day with all day trick-or-treating and a dive-in movie, Monster House, at 6 p.m. Saturday, October 31.

Not to be out done, Pointe Hilton Tapatio Cliffs Resort, will be hosting Halloween at the Pointe for all the little monsters and witches looking for a spooktacular time.

Transformed into a haunt fit for a ghost, The Falls Water Village will feature Wii tournaments, trick-or-treating around the resort, a costume contest, a pumpkin hunt, arts-in-crafts for guests, and a dive-in movie, Corpse's Bride, at 6 p.m. Saturday, October 31.
